VICE CHANCELLOR'S MESSAGE

It gives me immense strength and pleasure to bring out the present prospectus of North East Frontier Technical University (NEFTU), Aalo, West Siang, Arunachal Pradesh.

NEFTU is envisaged as an excellent centre, where knowledge and empowering career go hand in hand. The institution strives hard for quality education which cannot be measured by quantity assessment alone. The sponsor may be private, but the students are not private, education is not private. The University's vision is to bring light to darkness, knowledge and bliss to the ignorant. Apart from offering traditional courses in both technical and humanities, the University has also tied up with the Department of Skill Development, Government of Arunachal Pradesh, as Training Provider (TP) on selective skill programs.

NEFTU will also introduce DigiLocker, the product developed by the Ministry of Electronics & Information Technology (MEITY), Government of India. This will facilitate the access to documents of all kinds including the certificates and mark sheets of any institutions. Where the roads are being damaged in the process of creating National Highway, the parents and students are facing untold miseries to move out of the State from the interior places of Arunachal Pradesh in search of quality educational institutions. In such a situation, the existence of NEFTU in the interior heart of Arunachal Pradesh has become a solace to the people of the State.

My sincere suggestion to the parents is to put their wards in NEFTU at Aalo. When the quality education with best of equipments has reached the door why risk moving out and waste money and energy. NEFTU at Aalo provides Hostels for boys and girls. Faculty members are drawn from all over India. Arunachalees are also being engaged on merit basis.

I appreciate the team work and the dedication by which the present prospectus could take birth with a renewed vision.

DR TEJUM PADU

About NEFTU Skill

Skill development and Skill Training under B.VOC programme is crucial for economic growth and social development. The demographic transition of India makes it imperative to ensure employment opportunities for youths entering working age annually. To enable employment ready workforce in the future, the youth need to be equipped with necessary skills, trainings and education.

The country presently faces a dual challenge of severe paucity of highly-trained, quality labour, as well as non-employability of large sections of the educated workforce that possess little or no job skills. The Skill Development and Skill Training under B.VOC programme in India is thus pertinent both at the demand and supply level. The Skill Development and Skill Training ecosystem in India is skewed towards a formal education system with limited vocational training. While the vocational training is in a dismal state both qualitatively and quantitatively, the higher education system itself is grappling with issues related to scale and quality.

Moreover, there is disconnect between the formal education system and work requirements, compounding the challenges related to the skill gap. A concerted action is thus required on the supply side to ensure sustained employability especially for the youth of Arunachal Pradesh. Extensive efforts to skill the workforce are required, both in quantity and quality. Transforming the Skill Development and Skill Training ecosystem and making it responsive to needs of both industry and citizens.

FIRE TECHNOLOGY AND INDUSTRIAL SAFETY MANAGEMENT

In Arunachal Pradesh 80 % of population lives at villages in eco houses. These houses have fire arrangements inside, used for cooking and as a heating system. Every year there are news of fire breakouts and it is very tough to get timely help from existing Fire and Safety Department due to poor connectivity. In this relevance people of Arunachal Pradesh needs to be trained in this sector for taking immediate measures at their own level. Government is also taking effort to aware people at very ground level leading to creation of jobs.

So, introduction of courses in the field of Fire & Safety sector under B.VOC programme has become a necessity for people of Arunachal Pradesh.

Once this gap is bridged, huge jobs opportunities will start flourishing in the state. In this relevance youths of Arunachal Pradesh needs to be well equipped in IT sector under our B.VOC programme to meet the requirements of employers of IT Sector.

In Arunachal Pradesh very few people understand the concept and importance of the Business and Entrepreneurship Management which results in a huge difference in the business outlook from that of other Indian States. To be a successful businessman, one has to be well trained in this field besides innovative ideas and resources. Our highly focussed programme will prepare the students to become more efficient in this field and inspire growth at all levels.
