Higher education in the present scenario is a challenging task especially in view of National Education Policy 2020 and it becomes our collective responsibility to accept the challenges. As a University we are always with you and that the coming session would be more conducive, helpful and graceful for all of us.

I welcome all the Institutes, their administrators, their faculty members and the students to be part of the University and wish them all success.

True to its motto we are here not only to help but serve you all; we are here not only to listen but to understand you all; we are here not only to administer but to facilitate you all; we are here not only to run the right trains but to run the trains at the right time; we are here not only to do different things but also to do things differently. Together, we will make the age old saying of Vedas true i.e.:
